

ICT

SKILLS STATEMENTS BREAKDOWN FOR STUDENTS YEAR 10 AND ABOVE

Understanding of the theoretical concepts

- Consistently achieves good marks in homework tasks
- Applies theoretical knowledge to coursework tasks
- Performs well in tests and exams
- Can explain the concepts verbally

IT skills – ability to use the software

- Has sufficient skills to carry out the projects
- Can make good use of available helpsheets
- Can use the on line help facility to solve any problems you might have
- Can recognize the moment when additional help is needed to further knowledge and skills

Ability to progress project work independently

- Can progress the projects independently
- Requires little feedback to produce the final version of the documentation
- Can plan project work with minimal help from the teacher
- Can organize work effectively, particularly in assembling all the required papers

Creativity in designing solutions

- Can carry out the standard design
- Can see other aspects of the problem which might be possible to solve with the right skills
- Can identify the best way to solve the problem making full use of the facilities of the software
- Is willing to try out various ideas in search of a better solution